CANADIAN OPEN 2003

B.C. players did extremely well at the Canadian Open in Kapuskasing - all of them won prize money! The tournament was run under the Kapuskasing pairing system, devised especially for the occasion by chief arbiter Jonathan Berry. In essence, this meant that after a certain point players could declare themselves ineligible for the top prizes, and thereafter would only be paired within their class. The resultant 2003 Canadian Open CFC rating crosstable looks very strange, with Jamie Harper finishing ahead of US grandmaster Larry Christiansen, but of course the results were achieved in different classes. For the full picture, see Jonathan Berry's own crosstable at 40th Canadian Open, Kapuskasing, Ontario, 12-20 July 2003.

I don't have the full details, but this is my best guess for how the BC players placed (all scores out of 10):

Fanhao Meng, 5.5, =2nd in U2400

Lucas Davies, 5.5, =5th in U2200 (this after declaring very late and playing two GMs!)

Valentina Goutor, 6.5, =2nd in U2000 Noam Davies, 6, =4th in U2000 Travis Lane, 6,

=4th in U2000 Yamei Wang, 5, women's prize in U2000 Evgeni Goutor, 6.5, =2nd in

U1800 Jamie Harper, 7.5, =1st in U1400

Congratulations to all!

To date we have only had one game submitted, but hopefully more will be available in future Bulletins:

BUGHOUSE NEWS

Thirteen players showed up for the July Open and, on a rare occasion, all were from BC. Eleven of the thirteen players were juniors and so it was not surprising that juniors dominated the top of the crosstable, with five of the top six players being under eighteen. When it was all said and done, Gavin Atkinson, the 2003 BC Bughouse Champion won with a score of 43.5/60. Quite far behind in second was Fanhao Meng with 35.5/60 and just behind him was Bruce Harper with 34.5/60. An honourable mention goes to Jamie Harper, who performed more than 200 points above his rating.

IN MEMORIAM ALFRED SCHULZ (August 19, 1932 - June 29, 2003)

It is with sadness that we note the passing of Fred Schulz, long-time chess player and organizer from Nanaimo, who died suddenly while visiting relatives in Germany.

Fred wrote this about his early life when he joined the CCCA (Canadian Correspondence Chess Association) executive in 1961:

"I was born in Poland of German descent and moved to Germany with my parents in 1936. I learned to play chess when I was 15 [while hospitalized recovering from pneumonia - ed.] and took a keen liking to the game. I came to Victoria, B.C. in 1951 and played in the Victoria City Chess Club. I moved to Nanaimo in 1954 and as there was no chess club here joined the B.C. Correspondence Chess Club and had my first taste of postal play. I enjoyed it so much, I also joined in the C.C.L.A. and Chess Review tourneys. My first major victory was in the B.C. Club where I became co-champion for 1956-57.

In 1956 I organized a Chess Club in Nanaimo of which I was president for four years and now am Tournament Director. I am also Tournament Director for the Vancouver Island Chess League and 2nd Vice-President of B.C. Chess Federation.

I was a member of the Canadian Team in the 4th World Team Championship (Postal). My correspondence chess record is 112 wins, 2 draws and 6 losses. I am a machinist, 29 years old and married to an Irish Colleen. We have 3 little boys aged 7, 5 ½ and 5 months old." [CCCA Bulletin #288, May 1961, p. 4]

Fred remained on the CCCA executive for ten years; he donated the Schulz

Trophy, initially for just the BCCCC, later for the entire CCCA, for the best-played game each year. During the same time he also served on the BCCF executive in various capacities, including President for 1963-65. A tireless organizer and promoter of the game, Fred's best individual result was probably the 1969 BC Closed (i.e., not Championship), where he finished second to Peter Biyiasas but ahead of Bob Zuk, Jonathan Berry, Russ Vogler, Dave Shapero, and Alan Ludagte, among others. A machinist by trade, Fred was also a would-be farmer, and is reported to have analyzed many of his correspondence moves whilst milking a cow.

In the 1970s Fred's interest in chess waned in favour of square-dance calling, which he threw himself into with the same passion as he had for chess. He called at all the BC Provincial Festivals and at several National Conventions; Fred felt that chess actually helped his square dance calling, with its memorization of dance steps and patterns. He was also a stalwart member of the Rotary Club.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Sunday Tournaments

Entry Fee: $5.00 Free entry for the highest rated player!

Prizes: 1st - $30.00 2nd - $20.00.

The park is between King George Hwy, 140th Street, 88th Ave & 84th Ave.

To get there, you can take a bus from King George skytrain station.

Participants and pairings: based on FIDE or CFC ELO active rating system.

Time control: G15

Rounds: 11 Round Robin. 30min. break after the 6th round (3:00-3:30)

Sponsors: none (so far). All sponsors will be advertised on this website.

Registrations: via e-mail at: nickbeqo@hotmail.com Dead line: Friday 11:00 PM.

Bring your own chess set, and clock.

Note:

a) Sportsmanship is required. No draw offers or draw claims, unless DEAD DRAW!

This rule is not only because it is a speed chess tournament, but also because there would be no room for pre-arrangements in order to split the prize. It will be unfair to other players.

b) Rated events require at least 25 min time control. This will reduce both, the number of players for a round robin-event, and also the prizes, since a part of entry fees has to go to Federation. Depends on the number of players, I might run two events at the same time:

1. unrated tournament with 12 players, and 15 min time control.

2. rated tournament with 6 players, and 25 min time control.

c) I am organizing this tournament in order to help chess players, especially in Fraser Valley, as it is too far to play in Croatian Center or Vancouver Bridge Center. Therefore, chess players are going to make the tournament rules, not me. I am open to suggestions and make the respective changes.

Remember: 100% of the entry fees go to prizes!

Boys U10: Elliot Raymer: 3.5.\par

Boys U12: Evan Raymer: 5.0 (fourth after a playoff).\par

Girls U12: Brianna Reid: 2.5 (out of 6, including a bye, but with a draw against the top-rated player, rated 900 points higher! Way to go - and you should have won, too!) Boys

U14: Alexander Reid: 4.\par

Girls U14: Valentina Goutor: 5.5 (second after a playoff); Lara Heppenstall: \par
5.5 (third after a playoff); Lesley Cheng, Laura Harper: 4 (fourth/fifth).\par

Boys U16: Fanhao Meng: 5.5 (second after a playoff); Jamie Harper: 3.5.\par

Girls U16: Andrea Cheng: 2.\par

Girls U18: Yamei Wang: 3 (second after a playoff).\par

\par

The tournament was well organized and, up to a point, well run. However, Yamei Wang was the victim of an obvious and unnecessary injustice. The girls U18 groups consisted of three players, one of whom was rated 600 points lower than the other two. Yamei drew both games with her real rival, Dina Kagramanov, of Olympiad Team fame - missing several wins in the second game. With an entire day at their disposal, the tournament powers-that-be declared that first place would be decided by a single playoff game (draw for colours), each player having 30 minutes. This when two real games could have been played!\par

\par

The many B.C. players who stayed home because they thought Kapuskasing was too far, too hot, too small or too buggy made a big mistake. Kapuskasing is a lovely town full of wonderful people, and the event was far better organized than the 2002 CYCC in Montreal.\par

\par

Special mention should be made of Lara Heppenstall, who scored only one draw in Montreal, and was in contention for first place in Kapuskasing; and both Alexander and Brianna Reid, who not only drove across Canada to get to the event (well, okay, their parents only let them drive in Saskatchewan) but who are also starting to scare their opponents.\par

CANADIAN OPEN 2003\par

\par

A number of B.C. players are currently playing in the Canadian Open in Kapuskasing - see the website for details: Welcome to the 2003 Canadian Youth Chess Championship and the Canadian Open Che \par

\par

\par

AN OPEN LETTER from Bruce Harper\par

\par

I learned a short time ago that the CFC has awarded the 2004 CYCC and Canadian Open to Kapuskasing for the second year in a row. This means these two events will be held in eastern Canada for four consecutive years (Sackville, Montreal, Kapuskasing, Kapuskasing).\par

\par

For people living in Vancouver, this is manifestly unfair. The location should rotate, provided there are reasonable bids from different areas of the country. The Kapuskasing organizers did a very good job, should be encouraged to hold other events, and there's no doubt the Canadian Open should be in Toronto at some point in the future. But in 2004 these events should be in the west. \par

People seem to be obsessing about the Canadian Open, but in fact the CYCC attracts at least as many participants.\par

\par

The bottom line? I will not attend these events in 2004 if they are held in Kapuskasing, neither will my kids, and I will encourage all other BC players to boycott the event. I think most BC players, especially juniors and parents, will feel the same way, and the 2004 CYCC and Canadian Open will be held without BC participating. This may well break BC players of the habit of going to the CYCC, so the damage may well extend past 2004. Congratulations CFC!\par

\par

For BC and Alberta players reading this, you might want to start planning on attending the 2004 Western Canadian Open, which will likely directly conflict with the Kapuskasing events. I would quite happily donate 10% of the cost of attending the 2003 Kapuskasing events to such a tournament - if everyone did so, we might not even have to charge an entry fee...\par

\par

I invite anyone in Kapuskasing who reads this (Jonathan?) to pass this e-mail on to the CFC. They are being very short-sighted in letting the euphoria of this year's events affect their decision for next year's events. If the events are really held in Kapuskasing in 2004, they will be ruined as national events for years.\par

NICK BEQO ANNOTATES\par

\par

H. Seid - N. Beqo [D02] Shock and Awe Active (1), 14.06.2003\par

\par

I do not pay much attention to rapid games, but there are two reasons I am annotating this one: 1. Some friends of mine that love Slav structures, asked me about my thoughts on this game 2. It was the only game I lost in this active tournament, and the only game of mine that was published in BCCF Bulletin.\par

1.Nf3 d5 This is the second time I play against this player; again rapid game, and again with Black pieces. The previous game I chose Queen's Indian, and I had a huge advantage from the opening. However, I failed to find the winning moves, and in the end I even blundered losing the game. Seid is a practical player that plays pretty fast, and does not risk much, in my opinion. 2.d4 c6 3.e3\par

Nf6 4.Bd3 Bg4 5.h3 Bh5 6.Nbd2 White's play is passive. As Black I am happy to develop pieces, and complete my opening in peace. 6...Nbd7 7.0-0 [ At least, here white should go for 7.c4 ] 7...e6 [7...e5 8.g4 e4 9.gxh5] 8.Re1 Be7 [\par 8...c5 9.e4 dxe4 10.Nxe4 cxd4] 9.c4 0-0 10.Qb3?! 10...Qc7= White that has the right of the first move, has not developed the Bc1 yet, whereas Black has completed the opening already! 11.g4 Bg6 12.Bxg6 hxg6 13.e4 dxe4 [ 13...Rfe8 14.e5 (\par 14.cxd5 cxd5 15.e5 Nh7) 14...dxc4 15.Nxc4 Nd5] 14.Nxe4 Nxe4 15.Rxe4 Nf6 [ At this moment, I needed some time to find a good plan, but I looked at the clock and I had spent 15 minutes. Thus, I had other 15 minutes left. I found it hard to play a rapid game, and writing the moves down at the same time. Let alone, this was my first rapid tournament in 2003. I refused 15...b6 because I liked the diagonal d8-a5 for my Queen.; I also refused 15...Rfe8 because the well-known plan Nf8-g6 does not work.; 15...c5 16.Bf4 Bd6 17.Bxd6 Qxd6 18.Rd1!+/= ( 18.Qxb7?? Rfb8) ] 16.Re2 Rfd8 [ After playing the last move, I realized that\par

16...Rfe8 was where I needed my Rook.] 17.Bg5 Rac8?! [ In such a positions the thematic moves are e5 and c5, but they require careful calculations, otherwise they might turn bad. Of course, I did not have time for that, so I continued my strategy to play around white's d4 pawn. After 17...c5 18.d5 exd5 19.cxd5 c4=/+ Black has a better game.; During the game, I was thinking to admit my mistake and play 17...Re8 ; 17...c5] 18.Rae1! Re8 [ 18...Rd7] 19.Ne5 Nd7 [ 19...Nxc4!?] 20.Bxe7 Rxe7 21.Nf3 Qb6?! [ Black should not go for a queen exchange. \par 21...Rd8= ] 22.Qe3 [ >=22.Qxb6 Nxb6 White has more space, but Black has a solid position. In my opinion this is the critical position of the game, where white might have slightly better chances, but not enough for an advantage.] 22...Qa6\par 23.b3 Qa5 24.Qf4 Qc7?! 25.Qg5 [ >=25.Qxc7 Rxc7 26.d5 cxd5 27.cxd5 Rc3 28.Re3\par Rxe3 29.Rxe3 e5 30.Rc3 Nf8+/= and the comments of move 22 apply all the same.] \par 25...Nf8 26.Re4 [ 26.h4! Nh7 27.Qe3 Nf6] 26...Rd7 White seems to have an imaginary attack, but in fact, Black has a rock solid position, whereas White has some weaknesses. 27.Qh4 Qd8 28.g5 [ 28.Ng5] 28...c5 Maybe, not the right moment. [ 28...Qa5 first, was probably better.; 28...Qa5 29.Ne5 Re7 30.a4 Rd8\par 31.R1e3 c5] 29.Rd1 cxd4 [ 29...Qa5 30.Rd2 cxd4 31.Rexd4 Rcd8 32.Rxd7 Rxd7 33.Rxd7\par Nxd7 34.Qd4 Nf8=] 30.Rexd4 Rxd4 31.Qxd4 Qxd4 [ 31...Qa5~~] 32.Rxd4 f6 33.h4 Kf7~~ I did not write after this move, and I blitzed out the rest of the game. The position looks unclear to me, but I would prefer Black. After Ke7, e5, Ne6 Black has the outposts d4, f4 for the knight, and the endgame looks promising. \par Eventually I blundered by helping white to attack my queenside pawns, and lost the game. I shared the first place, and I received $15.00 prize, the same amount as I paid for the entry fee. I was surprised to learn that only 30% of the entry fees went to the prizes. On the other hand, my active rating of 2315 ELO was very high compare to the rest of the players. Everything was at risk from my side:). 1-0\par

line: Friday 11:00 PM.\par

Bring your own chess set, and clock.\par

Note:\par

a) Sportsmanship is required. No draw offers or draw claims, unless DEAD DRAW!\par

\par

This rule is not only because it is a speed chess tournament, but also because there would be no room for pre-arrangements in order to split the prize. It will be unfair to other players.\par

b) Rated events require at least 25 min time control. This will reduce both, the number of players for a round robin-event, and also the prizes, since a part of entry fees has to go to Federation. Depends on the number of players, I might run two events at the same time:

\par

1. unrated tournament with 12 players, and 15 min time control.\par

2. rated tournament with 6 players, and 25 min time control.\par

c) I am organizing this tournament in order to help chess players, especially in Fraser Valley, as it is too far to play in Croatian Center or Vancouver Bridge Center. Therefore, chess players are going to make the tournament rules, not me. I am open to suggestions and make the respective changes. \par

Remember: 100% of the entry fees go to prizes!\par

CANADIAN OPEN 2003

B.C. players did extremely well at the Canadian Open in Kapuskasing - all of them won prize money! The tournament was run under the Kapuskasing pairing system, devised especially for the occasion by chief arbiter Jonathan Berry. In essence, this meant that after a certain point players could declare themselves ineligible for the top prizes, and thereafter would only be paired within their class. The resultant 2003 Canadian Open CFC rating crosstable looks very strange, with Jamie Harper finishing ahead of US grandmaster Larry Christiansen, but of course the results were achieved in different classes. For the full picture, see Jonathan Berry's own crosstable at 40th Canadian Open, Kapuskasing, Ontario, 12-20 July 2003.

I don't have the full details, but this is my best guess for how the BC players placed (all scores out of 10):

Fanhao Meng, 5.5, =2nd in U2400

Lucas Davies, 5.5, =5th in U2200 (this after declaring very late and playing two GMs!)

Valentina Goutor, 6.5, =2nd in U2000 Noam Davies, 6, =4th in U2000 Travis Lane, 6,

=4th in U2000 Yamei Wang, 5, women's prize in U2000 Evgeni Goutor, 6.5, =2nd in

U1800 Jamie Harper, 7.5, =1st in U1400

Congratulations to all!

To date we have only had one game submitted, but hopefully more will be available in future Bulletins:

BUGHOUSE NEWS

Thirteen players showed up for the July Open and, on a rare occasion, all were from BC. Eleven of the thirteen players were juniors and so it was not surprising that juniors dominated the top of the crosstable, with five of the top six players being under eighteen. When it was all said and done, Gavin Atkinson, the 2003 BC Bughouse Champion won with a score of 43.5/60. Quite far behind in second was Fanhao Meng with 35.5/60 and just behind him was Bruce Harper with 34.5/60. An honourable mention goes to Jamie Harper, who performed more than 200 points above his rating.

BUGHOUSE BC

IN MEMORIAM ALFRED SCHULZ (August 19, 1932 - June 29, 2003)

It is with sadness that we note the passing of Fred Schulz, long-time chess player and organizer from Nanaimo, who died suddenly while visiting relatives in Germany.

Fred wrote this about his early life when he joined the CCCA (Canadian Correspondence Chess Association) executive in 1961:

"I was born in Poland of German descent and moved to Germany with my parents in 1936. I learned to play chess when I was 15 [while hospitalized recovering from pneumonia - ed.] and took a keen liking to the game. I came to Victoria, B.C. in 1951 and played in the Victoria City Chess Club. I moved to Nanaimo in 1954 and as there was no chess club here joined the B.C. Correspondence Chess Club and had my first taste of postal play. I enjoyed it so much, I also joined in the C.C.L.A. and Chess Review tourneys. My first major victory was in the B.C. Club where I became co-champion for 1956-57.

In 1956 I organized a Chess Club in Nanaimo of which I was president for four years and now am Tournament Director. I am also Tournament Director for the Vancouver Island Chess League and 2nd Vice-President of B.C. Chess Federation. I was a member of the Canadian Team in the 4th World Team Championship (Postal). My correspondence chess record is 112 wins, 2 draws and 6 losses. I am a machinist, 29 years old and married to an Irish Colleen. We have 3 little boys aged 7, 5 ½ and 5 months old." [CCCA Bulletin #288, May 1961, p. 4]

Fred remained on the CCCA executive for ten years; he donated the Schulz Trophy, initially for just the BCCCC, later for the entire CCCA, for the best-played game each year. During the same time he also served on the BCCF executive in various capacities, including President for 1963-65. A tireless organizer and promoter of the game, Fred's best individual result was probably the 1969 BC Closed (i.e., not Championship), where he finished second to Peter Biyiasas but ahead of Bob Zuk, Jonathan Berry, Russ Vogler, Dave Shapero, and Alan Ludagte, among others. A machinist by trade, Fred was also a would-be farmer, and is reported to have analyzed many of his correspondence moves whilst milking a cow.

In the 1970s Fred's interest in chess waned in favour of square-dance calling, which he threw himself into with the same passion as he had for chess. He called at all the BC Provincial Festivals and at several National Conventions; Fred felt that chess actually helped his square dance calling, with its memorization of dance steps and patterns. He was also a stalwart member of the Rotary Club.

Registrations: via e-mail at: nickbeqo@hotmail.com Dead line: Friday 11:00 PM.

Bring your own chess set, and clock.

Note:

a) Sportsmanship is required. No draw offers or draw claims, unless DEAD DRAW!

This rule is not only because it is a speed chess tournament, but also because there would be no room for pre-arrangements in order to split the prize. It will be unfair to other players.

b) Rated events require at least 25 min time control. This will reduce both, the number of players for a round robin-event, and also the prizes, since a part of entry fees has to go to Federation. Depends on the number of players, I might run two events at the same time:

1. unrated tournament with 12 players, and 15 min time control.

2. rated tournament with 6 players, and 25 min time control.

c) I am organizing this tournament in order to help chess players, especially in Fraser Valley, as it is too far to play in Croatian Center or Vancouver Bridge Center. Therefore, chess players are going to make the tournament rules, not me. I am open to suggestions and make the respective changes.

Remember: 100% of the entry fees go to prizes!
